

WORKPLACE RIGHTS FOR MODELS FASHION SHOW CHECKLIST

If you are being asked to work a fashion show find out the following details and ask for them to be provided in writing:

Full Name *

Email Address *

What will you be wearing/not wearing? (At the very least the type of clothes)

If the work is recorded in what way will the work be photographed or recorded?

The location you will be working

Under what conditions will you be working? Eg. Will it be a hot location/underwater

How will you be required to wear your hair?

Who are you modelling for?

What will you be required to do?

How much will you be paid?

(At the very least establish what the hourly rate and minimum number of hours of work is anticipated) See the Wage Sheet for details on hourly rates and allowances

Some other details which may be relevant but do not need to be in writing:

How long will it take? (This may be hard to answer but at least an estimate)

Who will be working backstage? (This may be difficult to answer; the purpose is to ensure there will be people you are comfortable around.)

Note: if you are required to appear in lingerie, semi-nude or nude you are entitled to have a person of your choosing present at all times
